Deniz's Message

When she came to visit me over the Christmas period, I gave my daughter a set of cutlery that I no longer needed. I had been wondering if it had been useful to her. The other day, she messaged the family and said, "Do you remember the cutlery mum gave me? I've been wondering why my bag weighs so heavy!" She had forgotten about the cutlery and had been carrying it in her bag all these months.

We often carry things that weigh us down and make us unhappy without even realising. The Bible says:

Give all your worries and cares to God, for he cares about you. (1 Peter 5:7)

May the God of all hope enable us to dig deep into our bags and offload our worries onto Him, who lightens every burden.

Deniz
